Lifesize® Cloud Privacy Statement

When you use Lifesize Cloud, you provide certain information to the Logitech entity identified in your Terms of Service including personally identifiable data ("Personal Data") and other information that is collected from Site visitors and users of the Lifesize Cloud Service. In this Privacy Statement, we explain our data processing practices in connection with the Lifesize Cloud ("Service"). These Privacy Policy terms are in addition to and hereby incorporate by reference the Privacy Policy located on Lifesize's website at http://www.lifesize.com/privacy. This policy may be updated from time to time and was last updated on the date indicated below. Your continued use of the Site and/or Service after any changes or revisions to this Privacy Policy shall indicate your agreement with the terms of such revised Privacy Policy.

Information Collection and Submission.

We collect Personal Data from you when you voluntarily provide such information such as when you register for access to the Lifesize Cloud Service, use the Lifesize Cloud Services, contact us with inquiries or respond to one of our surveys. Wherever Lifesize collects Personal Data we make an effort to provide a link to this Privacy Policy.

By voluntarily providing us with Personal Data, you are consenting to our use of it in accordance with this Privacy Policy. If you provide Personal Data, you acknowledge and agree that such Personal Data may be transferred from your current location to the offices and servers of Lifesize located in the United States.

Manual information submission.

When you use the Lifesize Cloud, you may provide us names, email addresses and other information about yourself and other users. You will know what you submit in each case, because you will manually enter the information.

Automatic information submission.

Additionally, your Lifesize system will automatically record, process and submit to us data relating to your use of the system, including device serial number, software version, connected hardware products, custom settings, other systems information, call data records (such as number of calls, participants and duration) and text message connection information (excluding message content).

Information Storage.

The information you submit is stored on your Lifesize system and / or our Lifesize servers, which are located in the United States, however, we do not store any media such as video, audio, chat, text, transcripts, or other similar media.

Children's Personal Information

We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from users under the age of 13. If we are made aware that we have such personal information, we will take reasonable steps to delete that information.

Information Use.

We use the information you and your Lifesize system provide to us in order to provide the service to you and enhance it for you and other users, make connections with the users you invite, and provide technical support and information to you. With your permission, we may also contact you with other relevant information, including Lifesize product announcements, software updates, software upgrades, special offers and events.

Cookies.

In operating the Service, we use a technology called "cookies." A cookie is a piece of information that the computer that hosts our Site gives to your browser when you access the Site. Our cookies help provide additional functionality to the Site and help us analyze Site usage more accurately. For instance, our Site may set a cookie on your browser that allows you to access the Site without needing to remember and then enter a password more than once during a visit to the Site. In all cases in which we use cookies, we will not collect Personal Data except with your permission. You can set your browser to notify you when a cookie is sent or to refuse or delete cookies altogether, but certain features of our web site, products and Services might not work. Information on disabling cookies in your web browser is provided below.

We may use the following categories of cookies on our websites and other online services:

Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are essential to enable you to browse around our websites and use their features. Without these cookies, services like shopping baskets and e-billing cannot be provided.

Performance Cookies

These cookies collect information about how you use our websites — for instance, which pages you go to most. This data may be used to help optimise our websites and make them easier for you to navigate. These cookies are also used to let affiliates know if you came to one of our websites from an affiliate and if your visit resulted in the use or purchase of a product or service from us, including details of the product or service purchased. These cookies don't collect information that identifies you. All information these cookies collect is aggregated and therefore anonymous.

Functionality Cookies

These cookies allow our websites to remember choices you make while browsing. For instance, we may store your geographic location in a cookie to ensure that we show you our website localised for your area. We may also remember preferences such as text size, fonts and other customisable site elements. They may also be used to keep track of what featured products or videos have been viewed to avoid repetition. The information these cookies collect will not personally identify you, and they cannot track your browsing activity on non-Lifesize websites or services.

The cookies that we commonly use are listed below.

Cookie name	Description	Cookie Category
JSESSIONID	Single session, first party cookie that maintains the session with the web server so the user doesn't have to login on every page they visit.	Strictly Necessary

You may encounter cookies from third parties on certain pages of the sites that we do not control.

Control & Review of Your Personal Information.

You have the ability to direct us to edit, correct or erase certain information pertaining to you, your Lifesize system and your use of the system and/or service by sending an email to privacy@logitech.com; provided, however, removal of certain information may limit some features or prevent you from using the service.

You may stop the delivery of marketing e-mails by following the unsubscribe instructions contained in the Lifesize email received or by clicking here.

Disclosure of Information.

We do not sell or rent our Lifesize customer or user information to unaffiliated companies. We disclose information you submit only as follows:

- We hire affiliated and unaffiliated service providers to provide the service to you, including Logitech Inc., which is certified under the EU/CH-US Safe Harbor Program. All service providers are subject to strict confidentiality obligations and process your information only on our behalf and subject to our instructions.
- We share information within the Logitech group of affiliated entities on a need-to-know basis, which will all honor this Privacy Statement.
- We may share redacted or anonymized information freely, but only after we redact it to ensure that recipients cannot use the data to identify you or link the data to you.
- We may have to disclose information for purposes of protecting your or our legal rights or as required by law or orders from courts and government entities.
- We may disclose to another business entity should we plan to merge with or be acquired by that business entity; or to any organization involved in a merger, transfer, or sale of our assets or business.

- Before we disclose your personally identifiable data for other reasons, we will first obtain your consent, for example via e-mail, click-through, an online opportunity to opt-out, or otherwise.
- If you post any information in public areas of our Site, such as forums or other areas, it will be available to the public and we may reuse and republish such information at our discretion and in accordance with our Terms of Use.
- To protect and defend the rights or property of Logitech, including its Site or this Service.

Protection of Information.

We are committed to the protection of your personal information. We use a variety of security technologies and procedures to help protect your personal information from unauthorized access, use or disclosure.

Consent to Transfer, Processing and Storage of Personal Information.

We may transfer your personal information to the United States, to any Lifesize affiliate worldwide, or to third parties acting on our behalf for the purposes of processing or storage, and by providing any personal information you fully understand and unambiguously consent to such transfer, processing and storage of such information.

Changes to This Statement.

If we update this Privacy Statement, we will post changes here or at http://www.lifesize.com/cloud-absolute-urls/privacy, or otherwise notify you.

Revised as of May 6, 2014.
