How To

Trial LifeSize® UVC Applications

LifeSize®
A division of Logitech

Try any LifeSize UVC application from the LifeSize® UVC Platform™, available as a free virtual machine software download on the LifeSize website. Unlike video infrastructure of the past that required separate setup and deployment, now you can try and evaluate an entire portfolio of video infrastructure products with a single download.

LifeSize UVC Core Applications

› Mobile video & call control—LifeSize® UVC ClearSea™

› Multiparty calling (bridge)—LifeSize® UVC Multipoint™

› Streaming and recording—LifeSize® UVC Video Center™

› Management—LifeSize® UVC Manager™

Additional LifeSize UVC Applications

› Firewall/NAT traversal—LifeSize® UVC Transit™ Server/Client

› Gatekeeper—LifeSize® UVC Access™

Ready to get started?

Before you begin:

a) Review system requirements on the LifeSize UVC trial page of the LifeSize website

b) Refer to the following documents, available on the LifeSize website

› LifeSize UVC Platform Installation Guide
› LifeSize UVC Platform Deployment Guide

c) If not already in place, install a virtualization solution:

› VMware vSphere® Hypervisor (ESXi) 4.0+: available as free download from the VMware website.
› Microsoft® Hyper-V® 2.0 or 3.0: available as free download from the Microsoft website, or as feature to be activated on existing Windows Server (2008 R2 or 2012).

If you have technical questions about the LifeSize UVC trial and have already reviewed the Deployment Guide, contact UVCtrial@lifesize.com.

Step 1: Download and Install

› Go to the LifeSize UVC trial page on the LifeSize website.
› Fill out the registration form and submit.
› Choose the file you need based on your virtualization environment (VMware or Microsoft) and click "Download Now" to download the LifeSize UVC Platform virtual machine sofware.
› Install the LifeSize UVC Platform virtual machine on your server. (For detailed instructions, see the LifeSize UVC Platform Installation Guide.)

Step 2: Choose and Activate a Trial LifeSize UVC Application

› After you have installed the LifeSize UVC Platform, choose a UVC application from the license drop-down menu and activate a free LifeSize trial license.
› Each UVC application is a separate trial.
› The trial period begins on the day it is activated.
› Each LifeSize UVC application will be available at a specified trial capacity.
› Where available, the trial mode will include the advanced Enterprise Edition feature set.
› The LifeSize UVC Platform Deployment Guide will walk you through activating a LifeSize UVC application.

Step 3: LifeSize UVC Application Setup and Evaluation

› After activating a LifeSize UVC application, you must configure that application for your deployment. See the corresponding documentation for each LifeSize UVC application on the LifeSize website.
› Evaluate the LifeSize UVC application.
› Contact a LifeSize reseller to purchase.
