

Lifesize Partners with Zoi Meet to Enhance the Online Meeting Experience

Personal AI assistant for Lifesize meetings enables users to focus on their communication, enhance collaboration with faster and more accurate information and bring conversation intelligence to any virtual meeting

Austin, Texas – Oct 28, 2020

Zoi Meet, an award winning startup that brings conversation intelligence to virtual meetings in the enterprise, today announced a partnership with Lifesize, a global innovator of immersive enterprise communication solutions. The collaboration between the parties expands on the integration capabilities of Zoi Meet and enhances the overall meeting experience for Lifesize users globally.

As of today, Lifesize customers will be able to use Zoi Meet to record all Lifesize meetings with time-stamped audio supported by a searchable and editable transcript. Zoi Meet's AI assistant will join Lifesize meetings to take notes on a user's behalf, even if they can't make it to the meeting. A full, exportable transcript with included action items is available after each meeting, making sharing and communication of information faster, easier and more accurate. Lifesize customers can try out Zoi Meet during a 30-day free trial followed by a discounted subscription of just $7.50 per month per user.

"The working environment changed even faster due to the ongoing pandemic, and virtual collaboration and communication became vital for enterprise operations. We're excited to partner with Lifesize and combine high quality video conferencing with conversation intelligence in order to provide the effective meeting and collaboration experiences that business professionals need." – Kevin Oranje, CEO of Zoi Meet

Lifesize is considered a true innovator when it comes to unified communications technologies, having just been recognized as a Visionary in Gartner's 2020 Magic Quadrant for Meeting Solutions. The company recently unveiled exciting updates to its cloud video conferencing and collaboration platform, aimed at allowing organizations to discover new meeting experiences and ensure success in long-term remote work. In August, Lifesize also acquired digital collaboration pioneer Kaptivo, immediately introducing a digital whiteboard application within Lifesize video meetings.

"Partnering with Zoi Meet to help our customers keep track of key conversations during Lifesize meetings, make accurate meeting archives searchable and shareable, and preserve productivity in those meetings advances our commitment to developing and delivering the meeting experiences and capabilities that employees need to work effectively from wherever they are." – Bobby Beckmann, CTO of Lifesize
